Rev. Wildmon saw earlier than anyone I can think of that the sexual revolution and the secular assault on Christianity were one and the same thing.

Don Wildmon, a true American hero, has been shining that light for decades. From the very beginning he saw the slippery slope that led us from Hugh Hefner to Heather Has Two Mommies. So read this book and then pass it on. Help shine the light. Don't be silenced. Don't be Speechless.

—ANN COULTER, FROM THE FOREWORD

Speechless:

Silencing the Christians

What drives the Christian bashers? Why has a coalition of liberal secularists, homosexual activists, and Fortune 500 companies united to wage war on Christianity?

Simple. They have some very real goals that they can achieve only by driving Christians out of public life: sex, money, and power.

The Christian bashers claim they want “tolerance.” What they really seek is the power to silence any opposition. And they are well on their way. Now Rev. Donald E. Wildmon, founder and president of the American Family Association, takes on the Christian bashers in a shocking new book that is far more than a litany of horror stories. In Speechless: Silencing the Christians Rev. Wildmon bravely exposes the frightening truth behind liberal secularists’ war on Christianity.

Imagine how much easier democracy would be, from their point of view, if the views of religious Americans could be safely ignored as illegitimate, if Christians could be pushed out of the political process and the public square—marginalized and silenced?

The Christian bashers think they have figured out how to do just that—redefine Christianity itself as a form of bigotry—the moral and legal equivalent of racism.

The result is no accident. Christians are being silenced all across America: in the political debate, the public square, the schools, the workplace, and even in the sanctuary of their own churches. Read these signs of the times:

- Christians threatened with prison for protesting the homosexual agenda
- Christian churches ordered by the government to perform lesbian marriages
- “Antibullying” programs explicitly promote homosexuality in public schools
- Municipal workers forbidden by a city to say “family values” because those words constitute a hate crime
- Proposed federal laws supposedly aimed at preventing employment discrimination that would make discrimination against Christians the law of the land
- Other “antidiscrimination” laws make Christian charities illegal
- Secularist liberals in Congress seek to censor or bankrupt Christian broadcasters
- The IRS “cracking down” on Christian pastors who oppose homosexual propaganda in schools, abortion on demand, or same-sex marriage
- The real impact of same-sex marriage? Any criticism of homosexuality would be legally defined as bigotry. Christians who protest could lose their jobs, go to jail, or see their churches shut down by the government
- The Christian haters are becoming an elite class of super citizens whose moral views are actively sponsored by the state while Christians are increasingly censored, penalized, and even prosecuted

Inspired by the documentary series of the same name, co-produced by the Inspiration Networks and the American Family Association, Speechless: Silencing the Christians explains—using the very words of the Christian bashers, just exactly what the anti-Christian coalition wants and why they must get Christians out of the way to get it. Speechless: Silencing the Christians sounds a much needed alarm bell and calls on all Christians and any American who believes in the freedom of speech to stand up and fight back—don’t be silenced!

REV. DONALD E. WILDMON is the founder and president of the American Family Association, one of the nation’s largest membership organizations fighting for family values in American life. Rev. Wildmon, an ordained United Methodist minister, earned his M.Div. degree from Emory College. Don and his wife Lynda have four children and five grandchildren and know first-hand the battle parents face today teaching their families traditional moral values.

Praise for Rev. Donald E. Wildmon's

Speechless: Silencing the Christians

There are few Christian leaders on the national scene who have done more to advance the cause of righteousness and defend biblical truth than Don Wildmon. For more than thirty years, he has been a voice crying in the wilderness, confronting immorality and speaking the truth when others are unwilling to do so. Every American who espouses a biblical worldview owes Don a debt of gratitude, and I am honored to call him my friend.

—James C. Dobson Ph.D. chairman and founder, Focus on the Family

Don Wildmon is an indefatigable culture warrior, a great defender of the Christian faith.

—Chuck Colson founder, Prison Fellowship

One of America's greatest leaders in the ongoing battle for God, Family, and Country. Our cause has been winning, despite truly overwhelming odds, because of Don Wildmon's vision, leadership, dedication, and personal integrity.

—Phyllis Schlafly

In every war, there are generals who make history by staying true to the principles that lead to victory. Don Wildmon is just such a man. For years, he has battled to protect religious liberties, even when others have tried to render us speechless. Within the pages of this book, you will discover that we are a nation at war. Now is not the time for cowardice. Now is the time to let our voices be heard.

—Janet Parshall nationally syndicated talk show host

In my thirty years of knowing Rev. Wildmon, I've realized that he cares not if he pleases any earthly power because he is on a mission not governed by those earthly powers. That's why I singled him out in my recent book Do the Right Thing as one of the national leaders who is driven by principles and not by politics.
